PARODI.-When Barnum brought over Jenny PARODI.—When Barnum brought over Jenny Lind "to astonish the natives," Max Maretzek was the manager of the Italian Opera, Astor Place, New York. In order to compete as well as he might with a brillant attraction, he sent to London and engaged Parodi. Of what followed therenpon, read what he himself says in his amusing "Crotches and Quavers"—those spicy "revelations of an Opera Manager in America:"

"From the day of her arrival, I announced that I should accept of no more subscriptions for the season, and raised the prices of admission exactly one hundred per cent. This last fact dispelled a doubts of her superiority, as it w s supposed I would not dare to do this, with such a novel attraction as Jenny Lind in the market, if I had not been morally certain of her success. Well, she appeared as Norma to a crowded house, and she had the talent to sustain the reputation by which she was preceded. To the end of the season she she was preceded. To the end of the season she continued to draw excellent houses; and instead of being ruined, as I myself had predicted, with a full determination, were it possible, to falsify my own prophecy, I carried these operatic seasons in New York, Philadelphia, and Boston to a triumphant close, being enabled to pay the debts of the entire season, and to close my own campaign with profit."

The New Orleans Delta thus speaks of the enthu-siasm created in that city by Parodi's singing of

"We think nothing could be finer than Mad'lle Parodi's rendering of this great lyric. She thoroughly impregnated every word with passion. Her mobile countenance varied with every change of the poem, and gave a new and wider meaning to the lines that have stirred the national heart of the lines that have stirred the national heart of France for over half a century. It seemed as if the thrilling thoughts of De Lisle, combined with the spectacle of two thousand excited faces turned toward her in almost painful expectation, had inspired her well nigh to madness, and like the improvisatori of her native land, she was singing from the very excess of harmony, which irrepressibly struggled with n for utterance. It was a triumph of vocalism never before equalled in our city, and produced an impression scarcely less marked and produced an impression scarcely less marked than that which we may suppose followed its first performance in the stormiest period of the French Parodi, we hope, will also be induced to sing, on Tuesday night, our national anthem, the Star-span-gled Banner, which was written by the late Frank Key, of this city, while temporarily a prisoner on board a British man of war in the Patapsco.

THE ENGLISH OPERA.-To-night the National Theatre is opened with Bellini's opera of La Som-nambula. Louisa Pyne, the Prima Donna of the troupe has won laurels in all parts of this country as the Queen of English song, and especially in the character of Amina, the heroine of the opera of to-night. As her praise is in all the concert rooms and operas, we need say no more of her to ensure a good attendance upon her performance than that she appears to-night.

The reputation which Mr. Harrison bears as the first of English tenors, will ensure him a good reception. Tenor singing in Washington is highly appreciated, as was shown by the crowds that fol-lowed the great American tenor, E. H. Frost, who was here last winter.

Messrs. Stretton and Horncastle, the bassos of the troupe, come to us with a fine European reputation, which has not been diminished by the receptions they have received in this country.

Excelsion.—We were present, on Saturday last, to witness the trial of one of "Holly's Patent Elliptical Rotary Pumps and Engines, which was exhibited on the wharf of our steamboat landing, by Mr. J. W. Dever, the agent for this truly great and useful improvement. The one whose performance we had (together with quite a large assemblage) pumps ranging, according to size, from Nos. 1 to 5. Besides drawing copious streams of water from the river below, a hose was attached, which threw water in profusion to the distance of 80 to 100 feet. These pumps are intended for railroad stations steamboats, ships, factories, as also public buildings, hotels, and private houses. The exhibition was attended by the engineers of the several steamers in the vicinity, who expressed in the most decided terms, their unqualified approbation as to the great advantage which this pump has over all others ever before presented to the public. Persons wishing an article or articles of the kind will find Mr. Dever, or one of his sub-agents, at the Exchange Hotel, C street, as also a pump of the smaller size on exhibition. ALMOST AN ACCIDENT—This morning, while some half dozen laborers were at work at the Post Office building, the scaffolding gave way with a loud crash, precipitating workmen, hods, and ma-terials to the floor or joists, some ten or twelve feet below. Fortunately, no injuries were received by the workmen, further than a few trifling bruises The noise made by the falling of the scaffold was so loud as to attract the attention of a large num ber of persons in and about the office of Justic Hollingshead, who had there congregated for the purpose of hearing the re-examination of some of the late burglars, which was to come off to-day, but which has been postponed until to morrow at

The Union of Saturday says, on authority of the Superintendent of Public Printing, that the Philadelphia fire, which destroyed the plates illustrating the Japan Expedition report, will delay the publi cation of work but a few weeks.

WESLEY CHAPEL.-Rev. Mr. Krebbs, the new pastor, preached a fine sermon at the Chapel in the morning, which was calculated to enhance the reputation which preceded him. In the evening Rev. Mr. Sunderland, of the Cincinnati Conference, but originally of the District, filled the pulpit.

WATCH HOURS.-The city has been very quiet for the last few days. Saturday night there were but few lodgers at the watch house, and last night a still less number applied for shelter. Captain Birch had no opportunity to exercise his functions as magistrate this morning in any capacity.

SMASH Ur .- On yesterday afternoon, some fast young men took a buggy ride, and not only broke the Sabbath, but also broke their buggy. The accident happened near Pennsylvania avenue, be tween Sixth and Four-and-a-half streets, bruising the riders, but breaking no bones; the carriage lost a shaft. The cause of the accident we under FIRE.—The alarm of last evening was caused by the burning of a chimney in the Fourth ward. The engines were promptly on the spot, but the fire was extinguished before they arrived.

More Arrests .- On Saturday, Call Armstrong a blacksmith of the First ward, was arrested by officers Stewart and Fanning, on suspicion of being engaged in the late burglary. On searching his shop, goods were found, which Mr. Forrest identified as stolen from him: The examination of Armstrong resulted in his commitment.

CONFIRMATION .- Yesterday Bishop Whitting ham administered the rites of confirmation to some forty-three persons at Trinity Church. He also preached a sermon, which was followed by a large contribution from the audience in behalf of mis sions. A very large audience was assembled to witness the rites and hear the Bishop.

Hon. Wm. Barksdale arrived here Saturday. He is stopping at the Kirkwood House.

ORDINATION .- Yesterday, Col. J. L. Edwards, Capinarios.—Yesterday, Coi. J. L. Edwards, late Commissioner of Pensions, was ordained as Ruling Elder of the Western Presbyterian Church, of which Rev. Mr. Haskell is pastor. The Colonei has for the last forty years been a prominent man in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and since the erection of the Church of the Epiphany has been a member of the Vestry of that church.

Lost Child.—A little daughter of J. H. Johnson strayed from her home this morning, and the benevolent are requested if possible to return it to its home on Seventh street, corner of E, opposite the General Post Office, as its parents are in deep grief on account of its absence.

The child is between five and six years of age, and answers to the name of Ella Virginia, bad on a silk worsted hood, and silk damask around its body.

The applications at the Department and at the various rendezvous for the enlistment of apprentices continue, notwithstanding the announcement some months ago, that the lists were closed. There some months ago, that the lists were closed. There are a greater number of boys in the service than can be accommodated, or are wanted. It will be some time, we learn, before any more boys will be collisted. There is no promotion for the apprentice beyond that of sailor. Better employment on shore can be found for boys.

RECOVERED. - All kinds of articles from books to RECOVERED.—All kinds of articles from books to carpenter's tools, and from watch wheels to cart wheels seem to have attracted the attention of the lately detected nest of thieves. Justice Stevens issued a warrant for the search of Ray's house for a wagon wheel which Chas. Lawson swore he believed to be there concealed. To-day officer Goddard returned the warrant, having found the wheel. What will be found next? Likely as any way they have stolen a house which will soon be found if things on on at this rate. things go on at this rate.

ARRIVED.—Parodi and her party, consisting af Strakosch and his lovely wife, (late Amelia Patti,) and Leonardi, arrived yesterday. They are stopping at Willard's.

Assault.—George Mockabee was brought be-fore Justice D. Smith by Officer Burr, for an as-sault on H. R. Maryman, when he gave bonds to POSTPONED.-The examination of Naylor and his associates, which was expected to come off at ten this morning, was postponed, much to the dis-appointment of the large crowd assembled in and around Justice Hollingshead's office. RETURNED.—General Wilson, United States Senator from Massachusetts, arrived here Saturday, on his return from a trip home, and is stopping at Willard's. APPOINTMENT.-Mr. George Fox has received the appointment of mail agent between Washing ton and Philadelphia, in place of Mr. Charles Bra dy, who for some time past performed that duty.

The English Opera Troupe, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison, Mr. Stretton and Mr. Horncastle, are stopping at Willard's. They arrived last

The treaty of peace was yet unsigned. The conference was less harmonious, owing to a demand put forth by the Prussian plenipotentiary to be admitted to sign the treaty on the same footing and in the same character as if Prussia had been a party to the alliance throughout. It is said that Russia supports the pretensions of Prussia. This took place at the meeting of the 22d. Another meeting was held on the 24th, but nothing had transpired of what then took place. The original transpired of what then took place. The opinion prevailed that the conference would ultimately re-pravailed that the conference would ultimately resolve itself into wn European Congress.

Peace is generally regarded as certain. The correspondent of the Times in the Crimea says that the war party there still cherish the hope that the peace negotiations may break down. It may suit the French, he says, to make concessions, but it ought not to suit the English. The French doubtless consider that they have done enough for hon-or, glory, and to revenge their reverses of 1812, and they cannot afford to carry on the war as England can. But their army, however numerous on paper, is dwindling sadly. The scurvy and fever are playing bavoc in its ranks. The mortality is stated to be 120 per day, and frequently more. The Allies had commenced the demolition of the

The Copenhagen correspondent of the London Times states that the Danish Commissary had submitted to the Copenhagen Conference a proposal for the capitalization of the Sound dues, fixing 35,-000,000 rix dollars as the minimum indemnity which Denmark claimed. The writer states fur-ther that the United States having declined to take part in that conference, the question would in all probability be resolved without their co-operation. Two large brick churches and three factories in Kensington were unroofed. The large boiler-bouse of the Franklin Iron Works, one hundred and fifty feet long, was totally demolished. The Trenton depot in Kensington was partially de stroyed.

PAIN KILLER. THIS unparalleled preparation is receiving more testimonials of its wonderful effleacy in removing pains, than any other medicine ever offered to the public.

And these testimonials came from persons of every degree of intelligence, and every rank of life. Physicians of the first respectability, and perfectly conversant with the nature of diseases and remedies, have recommended this as one of the most effectual in their line of preparations for the extinction of pain.

This may certify that I have used Perry Davis's Vegetable Pain Killer with great success in cases of Cholera Infantum, Common Bowel Complaint, Fronchitis, Coughs, Colds, &c., and would cheerfully recommend it as a family medicine.

Pastor of the Baptist Church.

This may certify, that I have used Perry Davis's Vegetable Pain Killer in numerous cases, and believe it to be a very valuable medicine. I have prescribed it extensively in Bowel Complaint, (particularly for children,) and it is, in my opinion, superior to at y preparation I have ever used, for the relief of those diseases. When given to children, I have always combined it with the syrup of gum arabic, say to a drops to a tea-spoonful of the syrup, well mixed. Others have mixed it with milk and molasses, equalparts.

I applied it in the store, and was astounded at the almost instantaneous relief. Before I left the store, it seems to be a second and in less than an hour inflammation was removed, and in less than an hour, the pain ceased. In two days my hand was well ever. Finding it to be really a remedy, I determined to try its effects as a curative for the Piles, to which I had been a martyr for years. After five dressing a my piles were amongst the things that had been. I am now entirely free from them, and in as good health as ever I was in my life.
